

Answers to the five most frequently asked questions from individual theatre professionals:

1. Where can I easily find all of Florida's professional, live theatre companies listed and their websites linked?

Go here to learn where the Florida professional theatre companies are located and links to their websites (PDF).

Annual
In-Person
Statewide
Networking
Auditions, &
Workshops?

2. When will FPTA produce its popular annual statewide in-person networking, auditions, and workshops?

FPTA has not produced its annual statewide event since 2019 due to the many disruptions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Once details for a future in-person, statewide event are finalized, details will be posted at www.fpta.net.

3. How can individual theatre professionals receive via email audition and job notices and other information directly from FPTA?

New membership guidelines are being developed now and once finalized will be posted at www.fpta.net. In the meantime, if you want to receive notices from FPTA, please sign up.

4. I'm an individual theatre professional (actor, designer, director, administrator, etc.) and I would like to share my professional résumé with Florida's professional theatre companies. Is there an easy way for me to share my résumé and interest in working at one or more of these companies that might be interested?

Yes, FPTA is developing a comprehensive database/directory of theatre professionals — both actors and others who work in the theatre. If you want to be included, please go here and complete one or both of the forms provided.

5. I have a different question. How can I get it answered?

Email info@fpta.net with your question and give the transitional leadership team time to respond.